GET KNOWN

PODCAST GUEST SHEET

Come on the podcast. Tell the story of how you built it.

Nicholas Remondos, founder of Get Known, talks with Australian founders and CEOs about how they built their business. You bring the story. We film it, cut it into short clips and share them with you as collab posts.

2M Nick says his podcast clips get around 2 million views a month on Instagram.

Why come on

Your story, told properly
The decisions, the hard parts and what you would do differently. What your market and future hires want to hear.

Clips you can use
The episode is cut into short vertical clips for Instagram, TikTok and LinkedIn.

No extra filming
No scripts, no content day of your own. Turn up, talk, leave with material for your channels.

What happens

BEFORE
We lock in a time that suits you
Book a quick call with Nick, then we confirm the date, place and topics.

ON THE DAY
About an hour with Nick
A real conversation, not a script. The team handles cameras and sound.

AFTER
We cut the clips
Short vertical clips built around your best moments.

GOING LIVE
Shared as collab posts
On your profile and Nick's at the same time, in front of both audiences.

Collab posts. One post that lives on both profiles, with the views and comments shared.

Yours to reuse. Post the clips on LinkedIn, your website or your careers page.
